

ANZOVINO, THOMAS (TIM)

--

Thomas Anzovino of Lakeland, FL, formerly of North Tarrytown died February 3, 2001 in Lakeland, he was 71. Mr. Anzovino was born in North Tarrytown June 18, 1929 to Joseph A. and Mary Wallace Anzovino. He was educated in North Tarrytown and served in the US Army during World War II. He worked for many years as a Corrections Officer in the Westchester County Jail in Valhalla. He was a life active member of the Columbia Hose Company, of the Sleepy Hollow Volunteer Fire Department, honorary Chief of the Aviation Volunteer Fire Department in Harding Park, Bronx, a member of the John B. Chase Engine Company #4 in Nantucket, MA and a member of the DAV. He was also a member and premier soundman of the Westchester County SPEBSQSA Golden Chordsmen, now the Westchester Chordsmen. Mr. Anzovino is survived by his daughter, Michelle Cary Anzovino of West Dover, VT and Nantucket, MA, his brother Frank and his wife Irene of Poughkeepsie, Jane Anzovino of Nantucket, MA and many nieces and nephews. Predeceased by his brother William. Visitation will be at Coffey Funeral Home on Friday from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. A Funeral Mass will be Saturday at St. Teresa of Avila Church at 10 am with interment in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery. COFFEY FUNERAL HOME 91 North Broadway, Tarrytown (914)631-0983