

CISKAK, JOHN

John Cislak, 43, formerly of Yonkers, died at Albany Medical due to head injuries sustained in a skiing accident. Mr. Cislak was born in Poland, the son of Andrew and Joanna Cislak. He was a graduate of Gorton High School, where he was an avid athlete. He was an all-round sportsman enjoying hunting, fishing, skiing, horseshoes and outdoor activities. Mr. Cislak was a well respected corrections officer at the Westchester County Department of Corrections for 23 years and a member of the Emergency Service Unit. John will be remembered most for his extreme generosity, countless friendships and zest for life. He is survived by his wife, Jeanne, five year old daughter Jenna, his parents, and sisters, Maria DeLuca and Melanie Stackhouse. Visitation will be 7-9 pm Monday and 2-4 and 7-9 pm, Tuesday, at SINATRA MEMORIAL HOME, 601 Yonkers Avenue, Yonkers. 1-800-696-5263. Interment will be 10:30 am, Wednesday, at the Ferncliff Cemetery Chapel.
