
Peter P. Bielenda Sr.

Peter P. Bielenda Sr., 59, Port Orange, died Tuesday, July 24, 2007, at home surrounded by his family and friends at his bedside after a short illness. He was born August 14, 1947 in Yonkers, N.Y., and moved here after he retired in 1995, having served 27 years as a sergeant at the Westchester County Dept. of Correction in Valhalla, N.Y. He served in the U.S. Navy. He enjoyed car racing, fishing and, most of all, spending time with his family and friends. He was predeceased by his parents, Ignatius and Mary Bielenda. He is survived by his wife of 37 years, Jeanette; three sons, Peter, Jr. and daughter-in-law, Christie, Michael, Mark and fiancée, Jennifer, all of Port Orange; three grandchildren, Michaela, Mackenzie and Dominic; and a brother, James, Yonkers. Services at Our Lady of Hope, Port Orange and burial at the Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell to be announced. Newlife Cremation and Funeral Chapel, Ormond Beach, is in charge.

Published in Daytona Beach News-Journal on July 26, 2007
