

Obituary

Frank J. Guglielmo, 74, of New Paltz, New York passed away unexpectedly from a heart condition on Sunday, November 7, 2021, at his home. His family is deeply saddened by his sudden death.

Frank was born on March 7, 1947, in Tarrytown, New York. He was the son of the late Frank Joseph and Mary E. (Sanzo) Guglielmo and he had four sisters, Marion, Louise, Frances, and Carol. Frank was drafted into the Army and served his country as a radio operator from 1966 to 1968. When he returned, he began his career as a Corrections Officer at the Westchester County Department of Corrections in Valhalla, NY. Frank retired in 2001 with the rank of Sergeant. He married Margaret "Peg" Coope in 1980. They went on to have two children, April and Frankie. He provided a wonderful home and life for his family. Countless hours were spent watching his children play soccer and baseball. He would not miss a game and he was very dedicated to watching them play.

Anyone who knew Frank was touched by his humor, strength, story telling, funny sayings, love of Italian food and his love for the New York Giants and Yankees. Frank mastered the art of relaxation, which included his recliner, slippers, comfortable clothing, a heated blanket, and his big screen television. Frank enjoyed watching sports, documentaries, and old western movies. Recently, Frank enjoyed the outdoors and taking long walks while listening to Bruce Springsteen. His greatest joys were his family. He adored his family, especially his seven beautiful grandchildren. Much of the past 12 years of his life was spent talking about and spending time with them. Everyone that knew him would say he was a great guy and probably had a funny story about him. He will forever be in our hearts and missed everyday.

“Sadly missed along life’s way, quietly remembered every day...No longer in our life to share, but in our hearts, you are always there.”

Frank’s survivors include Peg Guglielmo of Albany, NY ;his daughter: April Dolce and her husband, Adam of Albany, NY; his son: Frank Guglielmo and his wife, Candice of New Paltz, NY; and his seven grandchildren: Kevin, Ava, James, Maggie, MacKenzie, Mason, and Frankie. He is also survived by his sisters Frances (and Bobby) Remling, Louise Bracchitta, and Carol Croft.

Copeland-Hammerl Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements. A private burial will be scheduled at a later date.
