Life Story for Kevin Reynolds

Kevin Reynolds is the loving brother to Mary Lackowitz, Timothy Reynolds and Joan Divine. He is also the loving uncle to Gregory, Jillian, Kristin, Christine and Dennis. It was a pleasure to be a great-uncle to his great-niece Jacqueline and his great-nephew Mateo. Kevin recently retired from the Westchester County Correction Department where he developed many friendships throughout his career. He was planning on traveling on traveling to see where he wanted to put down roots for the next chapter of his life. God had different plans for Kevin. Kevin now resides in Heaven with the rest of his loving family. We are all feeling the loss! Kevin's nephews Greg and Kevin always had a special bond from the day Greg was born Kevin was Greg's uncle and Godfather. He was the son Kevin never had. They laughed together and loved going to the movies together. Kevin relied on his brother Timothy and Tim's wife Susan for many things. They were always ready, willing and able to help Kevin with everything. Kevin and Tim had a special love for each other. Kevin's sister Joan will miss him and loves him very much. Since his retirement he was able to bond with his niece Kristin and his great-niece Jacqueline. They took long walks and had great talks. I, his sister Mary will miss worrying about him!
